HOW-TO'S FOR COLD EMAILS

A HOW-TO GUIDE

- How to identify leads? Networking events, Google, AI, LinkedIn, Rocket Launch
- How to reach out?
 - Step 1 – Send an email asking for internship (or connection request with a message on LinkedIn)
 - Step 2 – Email response asking for follow-up (expect a low response rate)
 - Step 3 – Conduct follow-up calls/interviews

STRUCTURE

STRUCTURING A COLD EMAIL

- 1. State your objective – “I hope this email finds you well. By way of introduction, my name is [XXX], and I am a first-year student studying [Course] at [University]. I am passionate about the [XXX] Industry, and I am writing to apply for an internship with your company.”
- 2. Why me (previous experiences, personal qualities)
- 3. Why firm (do your research!) – info could come from company website, AI, annual report (business section)
- 4. Why internship – describe what you will do during the internship
- 5. Ending – “Thank you for your time and consideration. I look forward to hearing back from you. Kind regards, [XXX]”

COLD MESSAGING

NETWORKING

HOW TO NETWORK

BASIC RULES

- A firm (but not forceful) handshake
- Speak with confidence and eye-contact, don't look away too much
- Try to smile, but not always (e.g. when people are talking about a serious topic!)
- Talk to professionals, as well as other students
- Act with manner, do not talk over other people
- Build on conversations

HOW TO NETWORK

STEP BY STEP

1. Introduce yourself
2. Ask the right questions – be relatable and presentable
 - What was your background before getting in the industry
 - Why and how did you get into the industry
 - What are some of the challenges and opportunities you see in the industry?
3. Connect on LinkedIn (+ ask for coffee chat)
4. Follow up on LinkedIn
